at 10-30 P.M. Sept. 21-1930. that while his car was parked in the rear of Montgomery and Wards Store on Watchung Ave. between 9-0 P.M. and 10-20 P.M. someone stole a large bundle containing two semi-woolen blankets, a pair of silk stockings, some tooth paste and a bottle of Listerine.
One of his daughters returned to the car for a few moments and noticed a man walking around the car but did not think of him stealing anything. He was dark trousers and of medium build. One of the blankets had a yellow plaid design while the other was of a pink plaid
